Description:

Dark moss green upholstery fabric, made using chenille yarn. The moss green colour is broken up with large motifs with a tribal theme. The symmetrical thick lined designs are vague in origin but attractive none the less. The abstract shapes seem familiar to a number of regions, and could possibly be linked to tribal art from Native north America to Mexico to Africa.

The motifs are woven into the chenille using terracotta and cream yarn. This creates a different texture, and contrasts against the dark green chenille. This dark upholstery would blend well in comfortable lounge gastro pubs with traditional dark wooden furniture. Team with plain terracotta or honey coloured upholstery fabric to lift out the colour of the motifs.
